The Essential Services Maintenance Ordinance, 1968

No. 9 of 1968

Promulgated by the President in the Nineteenth Year of the Republic of India.

An Ordinance to provide for the maintenance of certain essential services and the normal life of the community.

Whereas Parliament is not in session and the President is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action;

Now, Therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (1) of article 123 of the Constitution, the President is pleased to promulgate the following Ordinance: —

1. Short title, extent and commencement. — (1) This Ordinance may be called the Essential Services Maintenance Ordinance, 1968.

(2) It extends to the whole of India.

Provided that it shall not apply to the State of Jammu and Kashmir except to the extent to which the provisions of this Ordinance relate to Union employees.

(3) It shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions. — (1) In this Ordinance —

(a) "essential service" means —

(i) any postal, telegraph or telephone service;

(ii) any railway service or any other transport service for the carriage of passengers or goods by land, water or air;

(iii) any service connected with the operation or maintenance of aerodromes, or with the operation, repair or maintenance of aircraft;

(iv) any service connected with the loading, unloading, movement or storage of goods in any port;

(v) any service connected with the clearance of goods or passengers through the customs or with the prevention of smuggling;

(vi) any service in any mint or security press;

(vii) any service in any defence establishment of the Government of India;

(viii) any service in connection with the affairs of the Union, not being a service specified in any of the foregoing sub-clauses;

(ix) any other service connected with matters with respect to which Parliament has power to make laws and which the Central Government being of opinion that strikes therein would prejudicially affect the maintenance of any public utility service, the public safety or the maintenance of supplies and services necessary for the life of the community or would result in the infliction of grave hardship on the community, may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare to be an essential service for the purposes of this Ordinance;

(b) "strike" means the cessation of work by a body of persons employed in any essential service acting in combination or a concerted refusal or a refusal under a common understanding of any number of persons who are or have been so employed to continue to work or to accept employment, and includes—

(i) refusal to work overtime where such work is necessary for the maintenance of any essential service;

(ii) any other conduct which is likely to result in, or results in, cessation or substantial retardation of work in any essential service.

(2) Every notification issued under sub-clause (ix) of clause (a) of sub-section (1) shall be laid before each House of Parliament as soon as may be after it is made, and shall cease to operate at the expiration of forty days from the re-assembly of Parliament unless before the expiration of that period a resolution approving the issue of the notification is passed by both Houses of Parliament.

Explanation.—Where the Houses of Parliament are summoned to re-assemble on different dates, the period of forty days shall be reckoned from the later of those dates.

3. Power to prohibit strikes in certain employments.—(1) If the Central Government is satisfied that in the public interest it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may, by general or special order, prohibit strikes in any essential service specified in the Order.

(2) An Order made under sub-section (1) shall be published in such manner as the Central Government considers best calculated to bring it to the notice of the persons affected by the Order.

(3) An Order made under sub-section (1) shall be in force for six months only, but the Central Government may, by a like Order, extend it for any period not exceeding six months if it is satisfied that in the public interest it is necessary or expedient so to do.

(4) Upon the issue of an Order under sub-section (1),—

(a) no person employed in any essential service to which the Order relates shall go or remain on strike;

(b) any strike declared or commenced, whether before or after the issue of the Order, by persons employed in any such service shall be illegal.

4. Penalty for illegal strikes.—Any person who commences a strike which is illegal under this Ordinance or goes or remains on, or otherwise takes part in, any such strike shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, or with both.

5. Penalty for instigation, etc.—Any person who instigates, or incites other persons to take part in, or otherwise acts in furtherance of, a strike which is illegal under this Ordinance shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

6. Penalty for giving financial aid to illegal strikes.—Any person who knowingly expends or supplies any money in furtherance or support of a strike which is illegal under this Ordinance shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

7. Power to arrest without warrant.—Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, any police officer may arrest without warrant any person who is reasonably suspected of having committed any offence under this Ordinance.

8. Ordinance to override other laws.—The provisions of this Ordinance and of any Order issued thereunder shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, or in any other law for the time being in force.

Orders

New Delhi, the 13th September, 1968

S. O. 3285.—Whereas the Central Government is satisfied that in the public interest it is necessary to make the following order:—

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 3 of the Essential Services Maintenance Ordinance, 1968 (9 of 1968), the Central Government hereby prohibits strikes in the following essential services, namely:—

- (i) any postal, telegraph, or telephone service;
- (ii) any railway service or any other transport service for the carriage of passengers or goods by land, water or air;
- (iii) any service connected with the operation or maintenance of aerodromes, or with the operation, repair or maintenance of aircraft;
- (iv) any service connected with the clearance of goods or passengers through the customs or with the prevention of smuggling;
- (v) any service in any mint or security press;
- (vi) any service in any defence establishment of the Government of India;
- (vii) any service in connection with the affairs of the Union not being a service specified in any of the foregoing clauses.

[No. F.13/7(S)/68-Est(B)]

S. O. 3286. — Whereas the Central Government is satisfied that in the public interest it is necessary to make the following order:—

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-clause (ix) of clause (a) of sub-section

(1) of section 2 of the Essential Services Maintenance Ordinance, 1968 (9 of 1968), the Central Government, being of opinion that strikes in any service connected with the supply of electrical energy to the public by the State Government or by any other licensee under the Indian Electricity Act, 1910 (9 of 1910) or with the generation, storage or transmission of electrical energy for the purposes of such supply would result in the infliction of grave hardship on the community, hereby declares every such service to be an essential service for the purposes of the said Ordinance.

[No.F.13/7(S)/68-Est.(B)]

S. O. 3287. — In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 3 of the Essential Services Maintenance Ordinance 1968 (9 of 1968), the Central Government hereby prohibits strikes in any service connected with the supply of electrical energy to the public by the State Government or by any other licensee under the Indian Electricity Act 1910 (9 of 1910), or with the generation, storage or transmission of electrical energy for the purpose of such supply, declared by notification of the Government of India, Ministry of Home Affairs, S. O. 3286, dated 13th of September 1968, to be an essential service for the purposes of the said Ordinance.

[No.F.13/7(S)/68-Est.(B)]

By order and in the name of the President.

R. PRASAD, Secy.
